“The acquisition by Goldschmaus is really welcome news for all concerned, especially the employees, for whose efforts I am very grateful. This is also the best possible outcome for the general body of creditors,” said Mr Stefan Meyer from the PLUTA law firm, who had been appointed insolvency monitor by the insolvency court, outlining the current status of the proceedings. He added, “Niederschlesische Wurstmanufaktur-Görlitz GmbH & Co. KG will continue to operate in a manner that will, if possible, allow us to implement a commercially viable solution for this location as well.”

The Hein Group based in Hasbergen-Gaste, near Osnabrück, is a long-standing family business and important mid-size employer in the region. Founded by Mr Dieter Hein in 1961, it traces its origins back to the 1930s in Lower Silesia. In recent years, the group generated on average approximately 77 million euros in turnover per year. In early October 2025, the managing directors of the Hein Group applied to the Local Court of Osnabrück, as the competent court, for the opening of debtor-in-possession insolvency proceedings for all of the group’s companies.
